

Parajumble Based on the Hindu Editorial For IBPS IT Officer/India Manipal PO Exam

Rearrange the following five sentences (A),(B),(C),(D) and (E) in the proper sequence to form a meaningful paragraph, then answers the questions given below them-

(A) Now, just about ten days before the deadline to deposit these bank notes into accounts, a similar confluence of ideas has led to a stunning decision to make it harder for people to do so.

(B) Those opting to disclose unaccounted income under the new amnesty scheme, the Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Yojana, face no restriction on depositing old notes.

(C) In November, the Governor of the Reserve Bank of India, Urjit Patel, said there was a 'confluence of thought' in the government and the central bank to deal with black money by removing existing Rs.500 and Rs.1,000 notes as legal tender.

(D) But anyone depositing Rs.5,000 or more into a bank account will have to satisfactorily explain to two bank officials why this was not done earlier.

(E) The new caveats, announced on Monday, restricting deposits over Rs.5,000 (roughly $70) are not just difficult to fathom but also constitute an unfair change in the rules of the game.
